THE CLASS OF 1963

FREMONT HIGH SCHOOL

Fremont, Michigan

To us school is more than just the length of time from 8:30 to 3:10, it is 175 days of memories. Memories of . . .

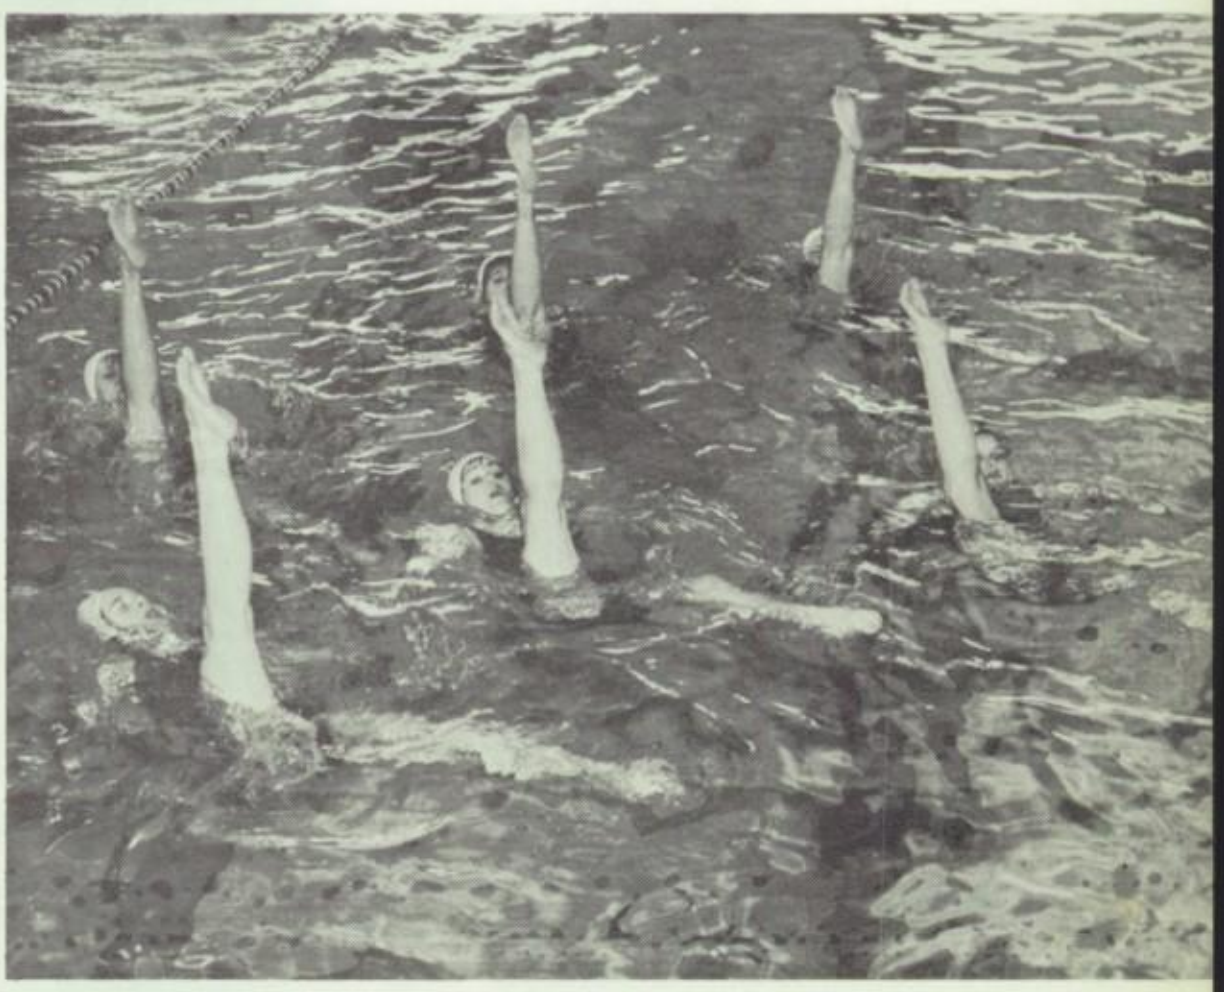
the many hours we spent in classrooms . . .

the chemistry experiments that, somehow, always failed . . .

hunting for information to write all those term papers . . .

School is not "all work and no play."
Win or lose, we cheered our teams.

and swimming in the pool.

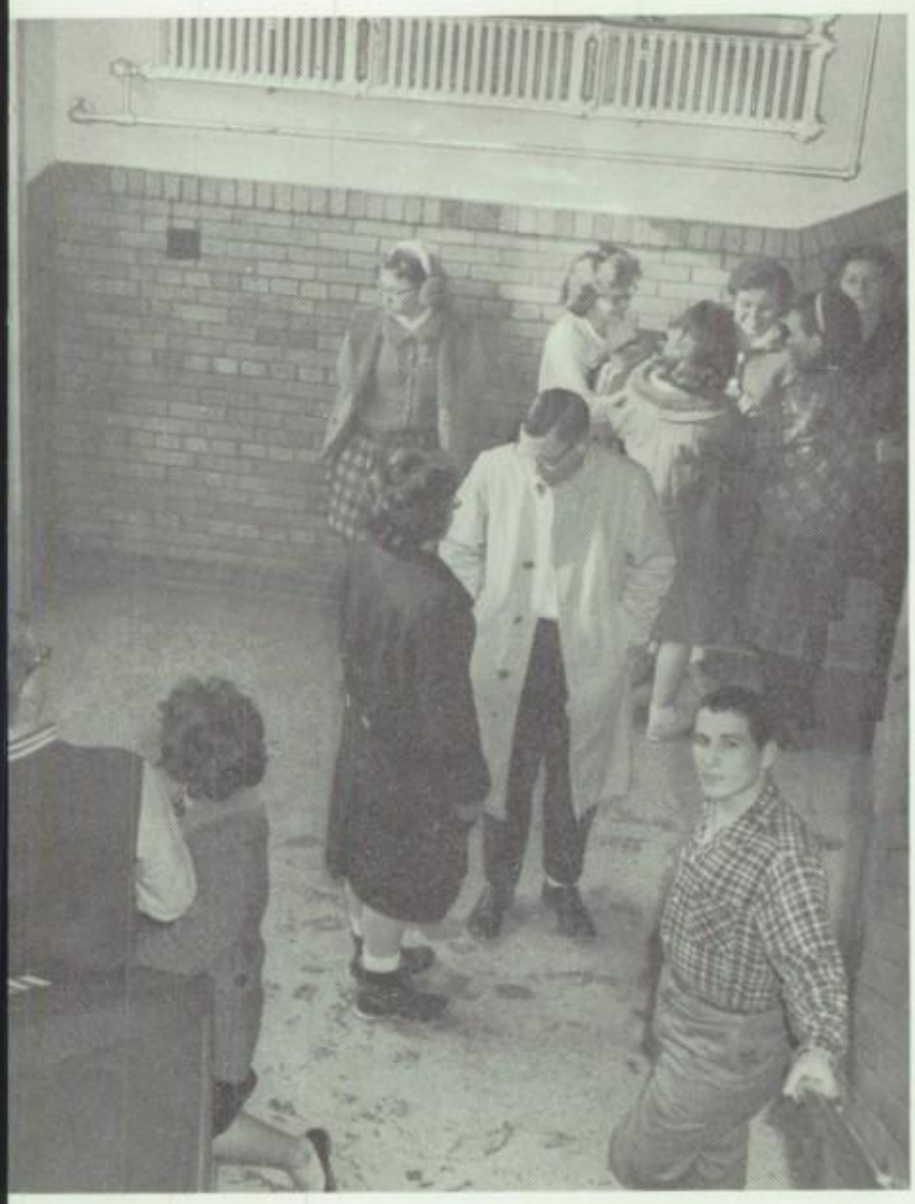


physical education class in the gym . . .

We remember moments of pride — the eighth grade championship basketball team . . .

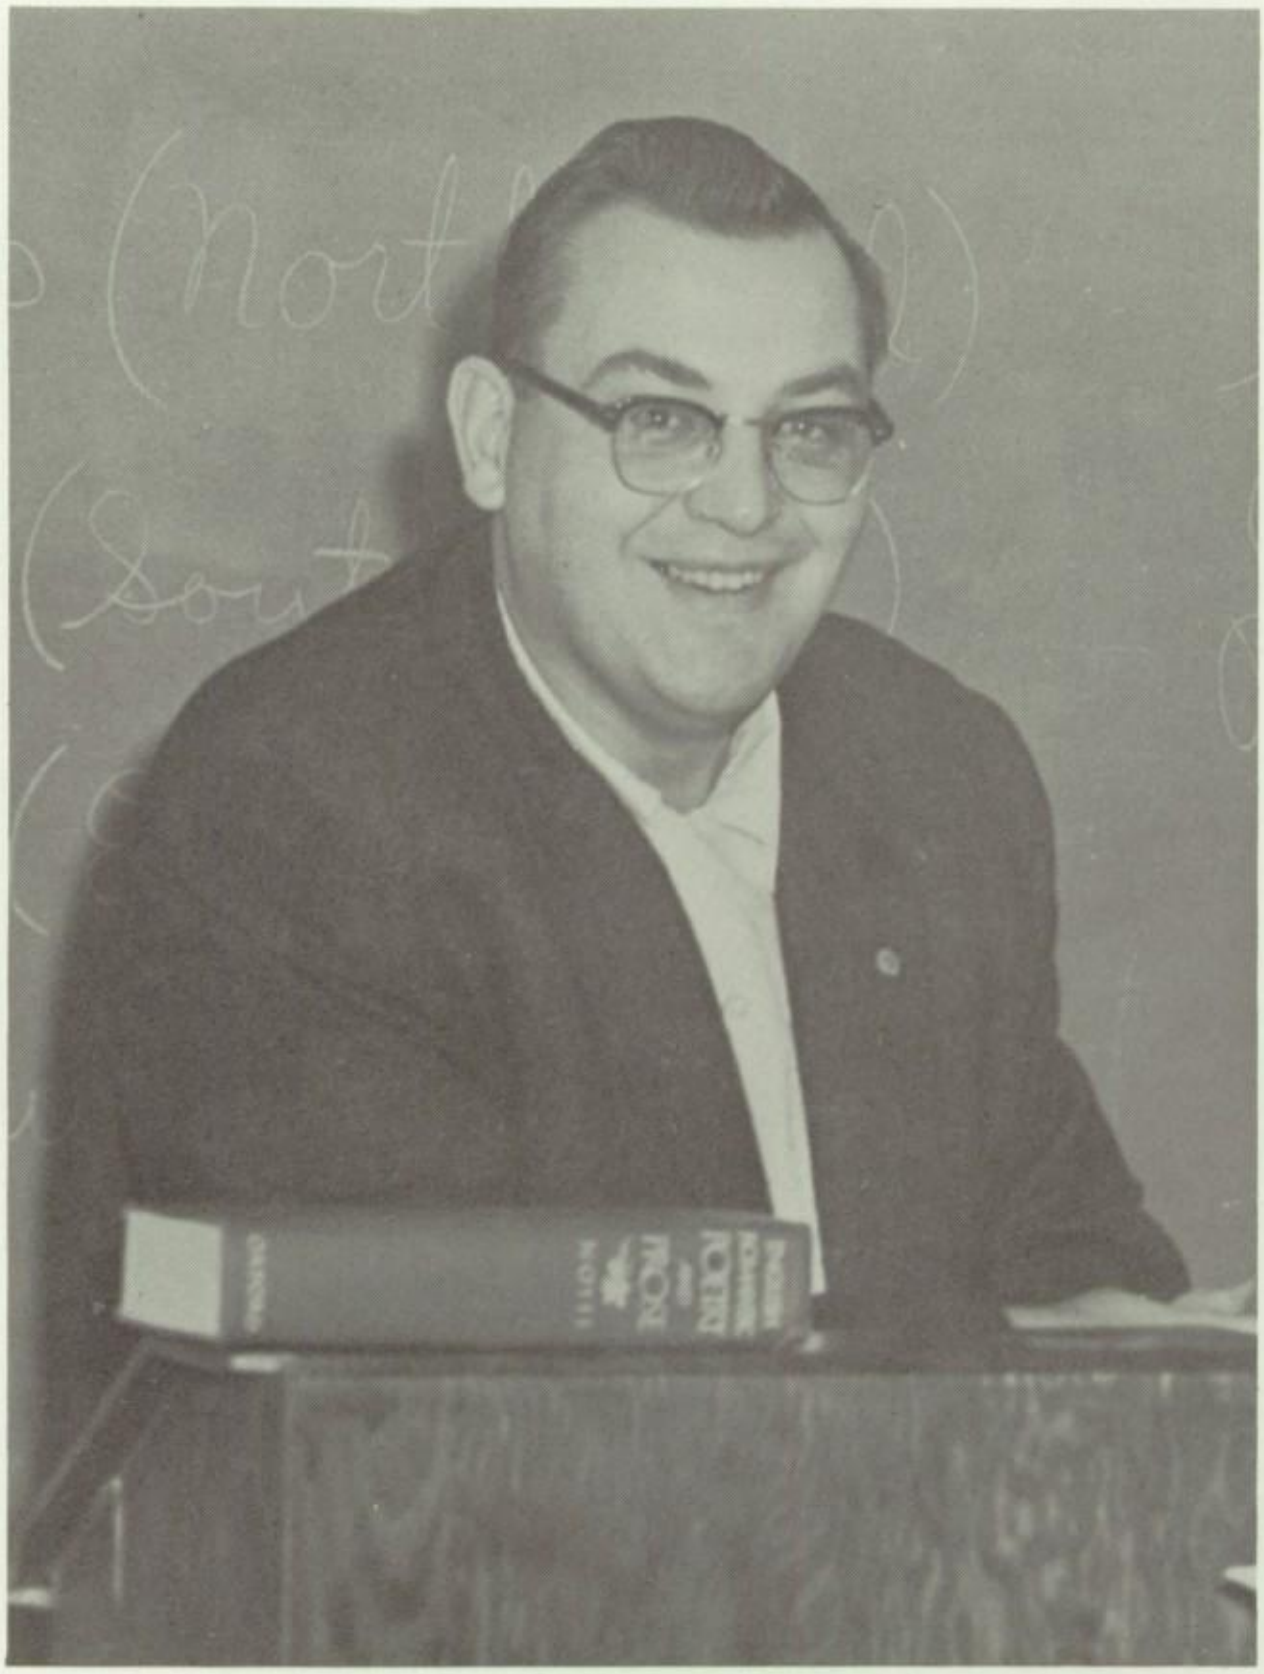
the dances that were so much fun . . .

and those talented "Tempests."



We will have many memories, but the most lasting will be those of the friends we have made.

Each of us has his own special "moments to remember." Each of us will think of this year in a different way, but none of us will ever forget our years at Fremont High School. In the future we will look back and say, "This I remember . . . . "



Dedicated to Mr. Robert Ellinger

In three short years you have given the students of Fremont High a renewed enthusiasm for study, a desire for knowledge, an appreciation of the finer things of life, and the inspiration to continue our education.

We may forget the hours we spent writing papers, taking notes, and holding class discussions, but we will always remember you and the guidance you have given us. The class of 1963 takes pride in dedicating this Mogul to you.

Mr. Kidder gives Seniors a few last directions at dress rehearsal.

Class History

The days are mounting in numbers too numerous to count, and time is consumed into memories and memories into reminiscing. Often are the times we ponder on our last four years here at F.H.S. Remember . . . . . .

It was a tense, silent moment.

As the curtain opened, it was Act I, Scene 1: Autumn, 1959. The freshman class, naive yet proud, was venturing into their high school full of dreams and anticipation. Miss Orr was guiding them and was assisted by Mr. Fleming, Miss Bradfield, Mr. Piggot, and Mr. Reimink. Chosen to lead them were Scott Kraai, President; Paul Houghtaling, Vice President; Mary Lou Holmes, Treasurer; Susan Jones, Secretary. Tom Hall, Kellie Kemperman, Linda Pugno, Nancy Derks, and Karen Stroven were the representatives in Student Council.

Susan Jones was the homecoming representative this wonderful year, and our Work Day enabled us to have a roller skating party in the spring.

Scene 2 was well under way as the Class of 1963, a little more experienced, confident, and determined after a full year in high school, started their sophomore year with Scott Kraai again as President; Mary Ann Savage as the Vice President; Mary Lou Holmes again as Treasurer; and Mary Jo Dahlstrom, Secretary.

Our homecoming representative was Mary Ann Savage.

We sold ice cream this year and had a party in April. When we ordered our class rings, most of us chose the stone setting, the Class of '63 being the first group from F.H.S. breaking the traditional style. Several of us attended the Honor Banquet, and the curtain closed on Act I.

Memories were mounting as the curtain opened on a triumphant Junior Class; Scene 1, Act II. The sponsors, Miss VanHorn, Miss Oppenhuizen, Mrs. Willson, Mr. Brown, and Mr. Fosheim, were headed by Mr. Gall. Little did we realize how many activities we were to encounter or the fun in store in our third year. Chuck Smalligan was elected President; Andy Anderson, Vice President; Keith Glasen, Treasurer; and Jane Sweitzer, Secretary. Linda Pugno and Mary Ann Savage were members on the Student Council Cabinet, and Dora Wyngarden, Karen Stroven, Kellie Kemperman, Tom Hall and Diana Stratton represented us in Student Council.

Penny Hastings was the representative in the homecoming court, and Mary Ann Savage was our Mid-Winter Festival Queen. "Our Town", starring Chuck Johnson, Karen Stroven, and Tom Hall, was under the direction of Miss Sogge. The class honored the seniors by sponsoring the Junior-Senior Banquet, choosing the theme of "Harbor Lights." Scott Kraai was the M.C. at the time of the program, and shortly after the curtain was lowered on the entertainment, it also closed on Scene 1.

We couldn't believe it. Scene 2 of Act II had arrived amidst the immediate signs of excitement, adventure and planning of the class which was to take its final bow to High School. Yes, they were finally seniors — the rulers of the roost. Mrs. Boerman was the chief sponsor this year, with Mr. Ellinger, Mr. Griffin, Miss VanHorn, Mr. Adair, Mr. Durkee, and Miss Elmquest assisting her. This year had already promised many activities to make it a grand finale. To lead us on our last stretch, we chose Keith Glasen, President; Jim Dake, Vice President; Andrea Luethge, Treasurer; and Judy VandenBerg, Secretary. Mary Ann Savage was the President of Student Council, while Chuck Johnson served as the Vice President and Karen Stroven the Secretary. Diane Jensen, Linda Pugno, and Tom Hall were all members of the Student Council Cabinet. Kellie Kemperman, Dora Wyngarden, Diana Stratton, Scott Kraai, Jane Sweitzer and Elaine Eisner represented us in the Student Council.

Autumn found us busily preparing for the Senior Sale, which had followed the Homecoming. Marcia Smalligan was our lovely queen, and Penny Hastings, Susan Jones, Karen Stroven, Jane Sweitzer and Mary Ann Savage were in her Senior Court.

Our Senior Play, "The Green Bough," directed by Mr. Kidder, starred Mary Stroven, Keith Glasen and Sharron Christofferson and was supported by a hard-working cast.

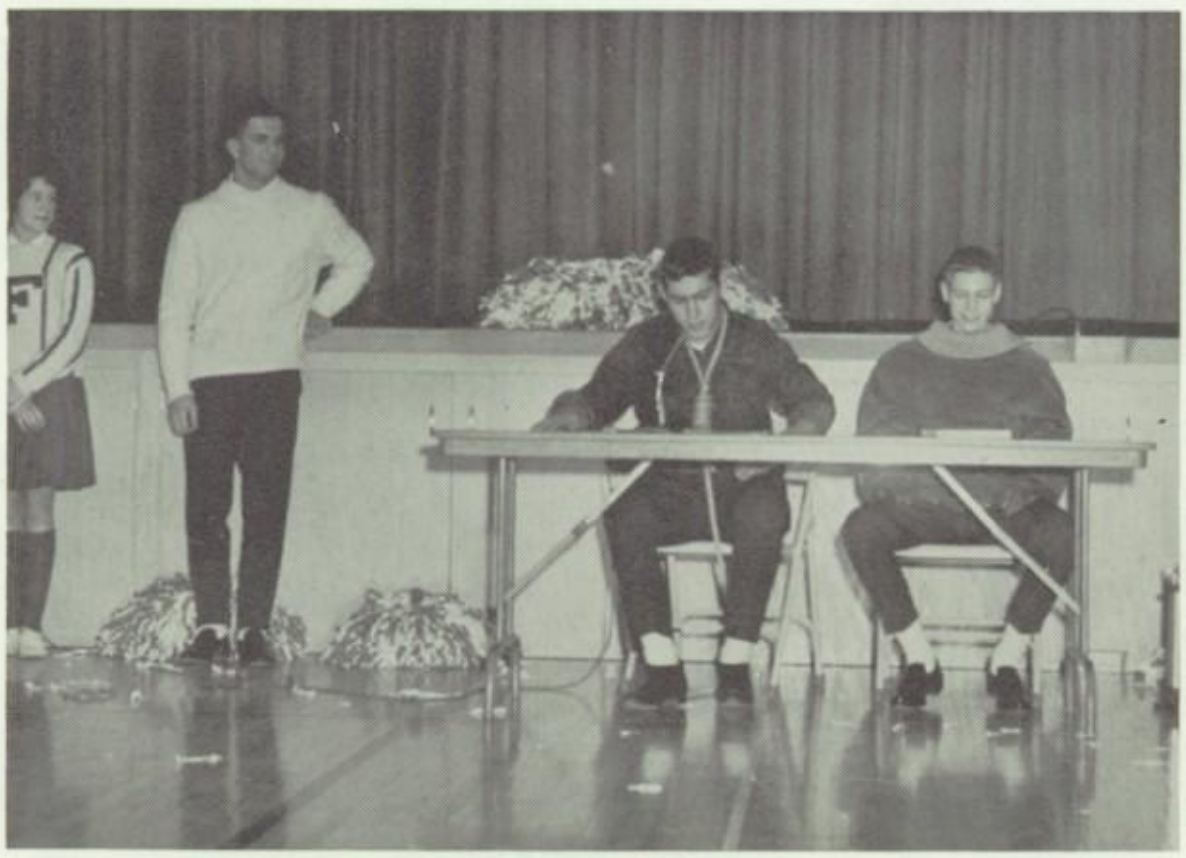
We were proud when Sinikka Ylijoki was chosen our Mid-Winter Festival Queen.

Our Senior Party was a lot of fun and it will be a long time before we'll forget this evening.

Suddenly, graduation day, May 29, was upon us. Yes, the curtain had begun to close on Act II, leaving only a glimpse of the future (Act III) as the footsteps and memories of the Class of '63 echoed through the halls of Fremont High.

Mrs. Norris and Mary Jo helping in the library.

"All right, just this once."



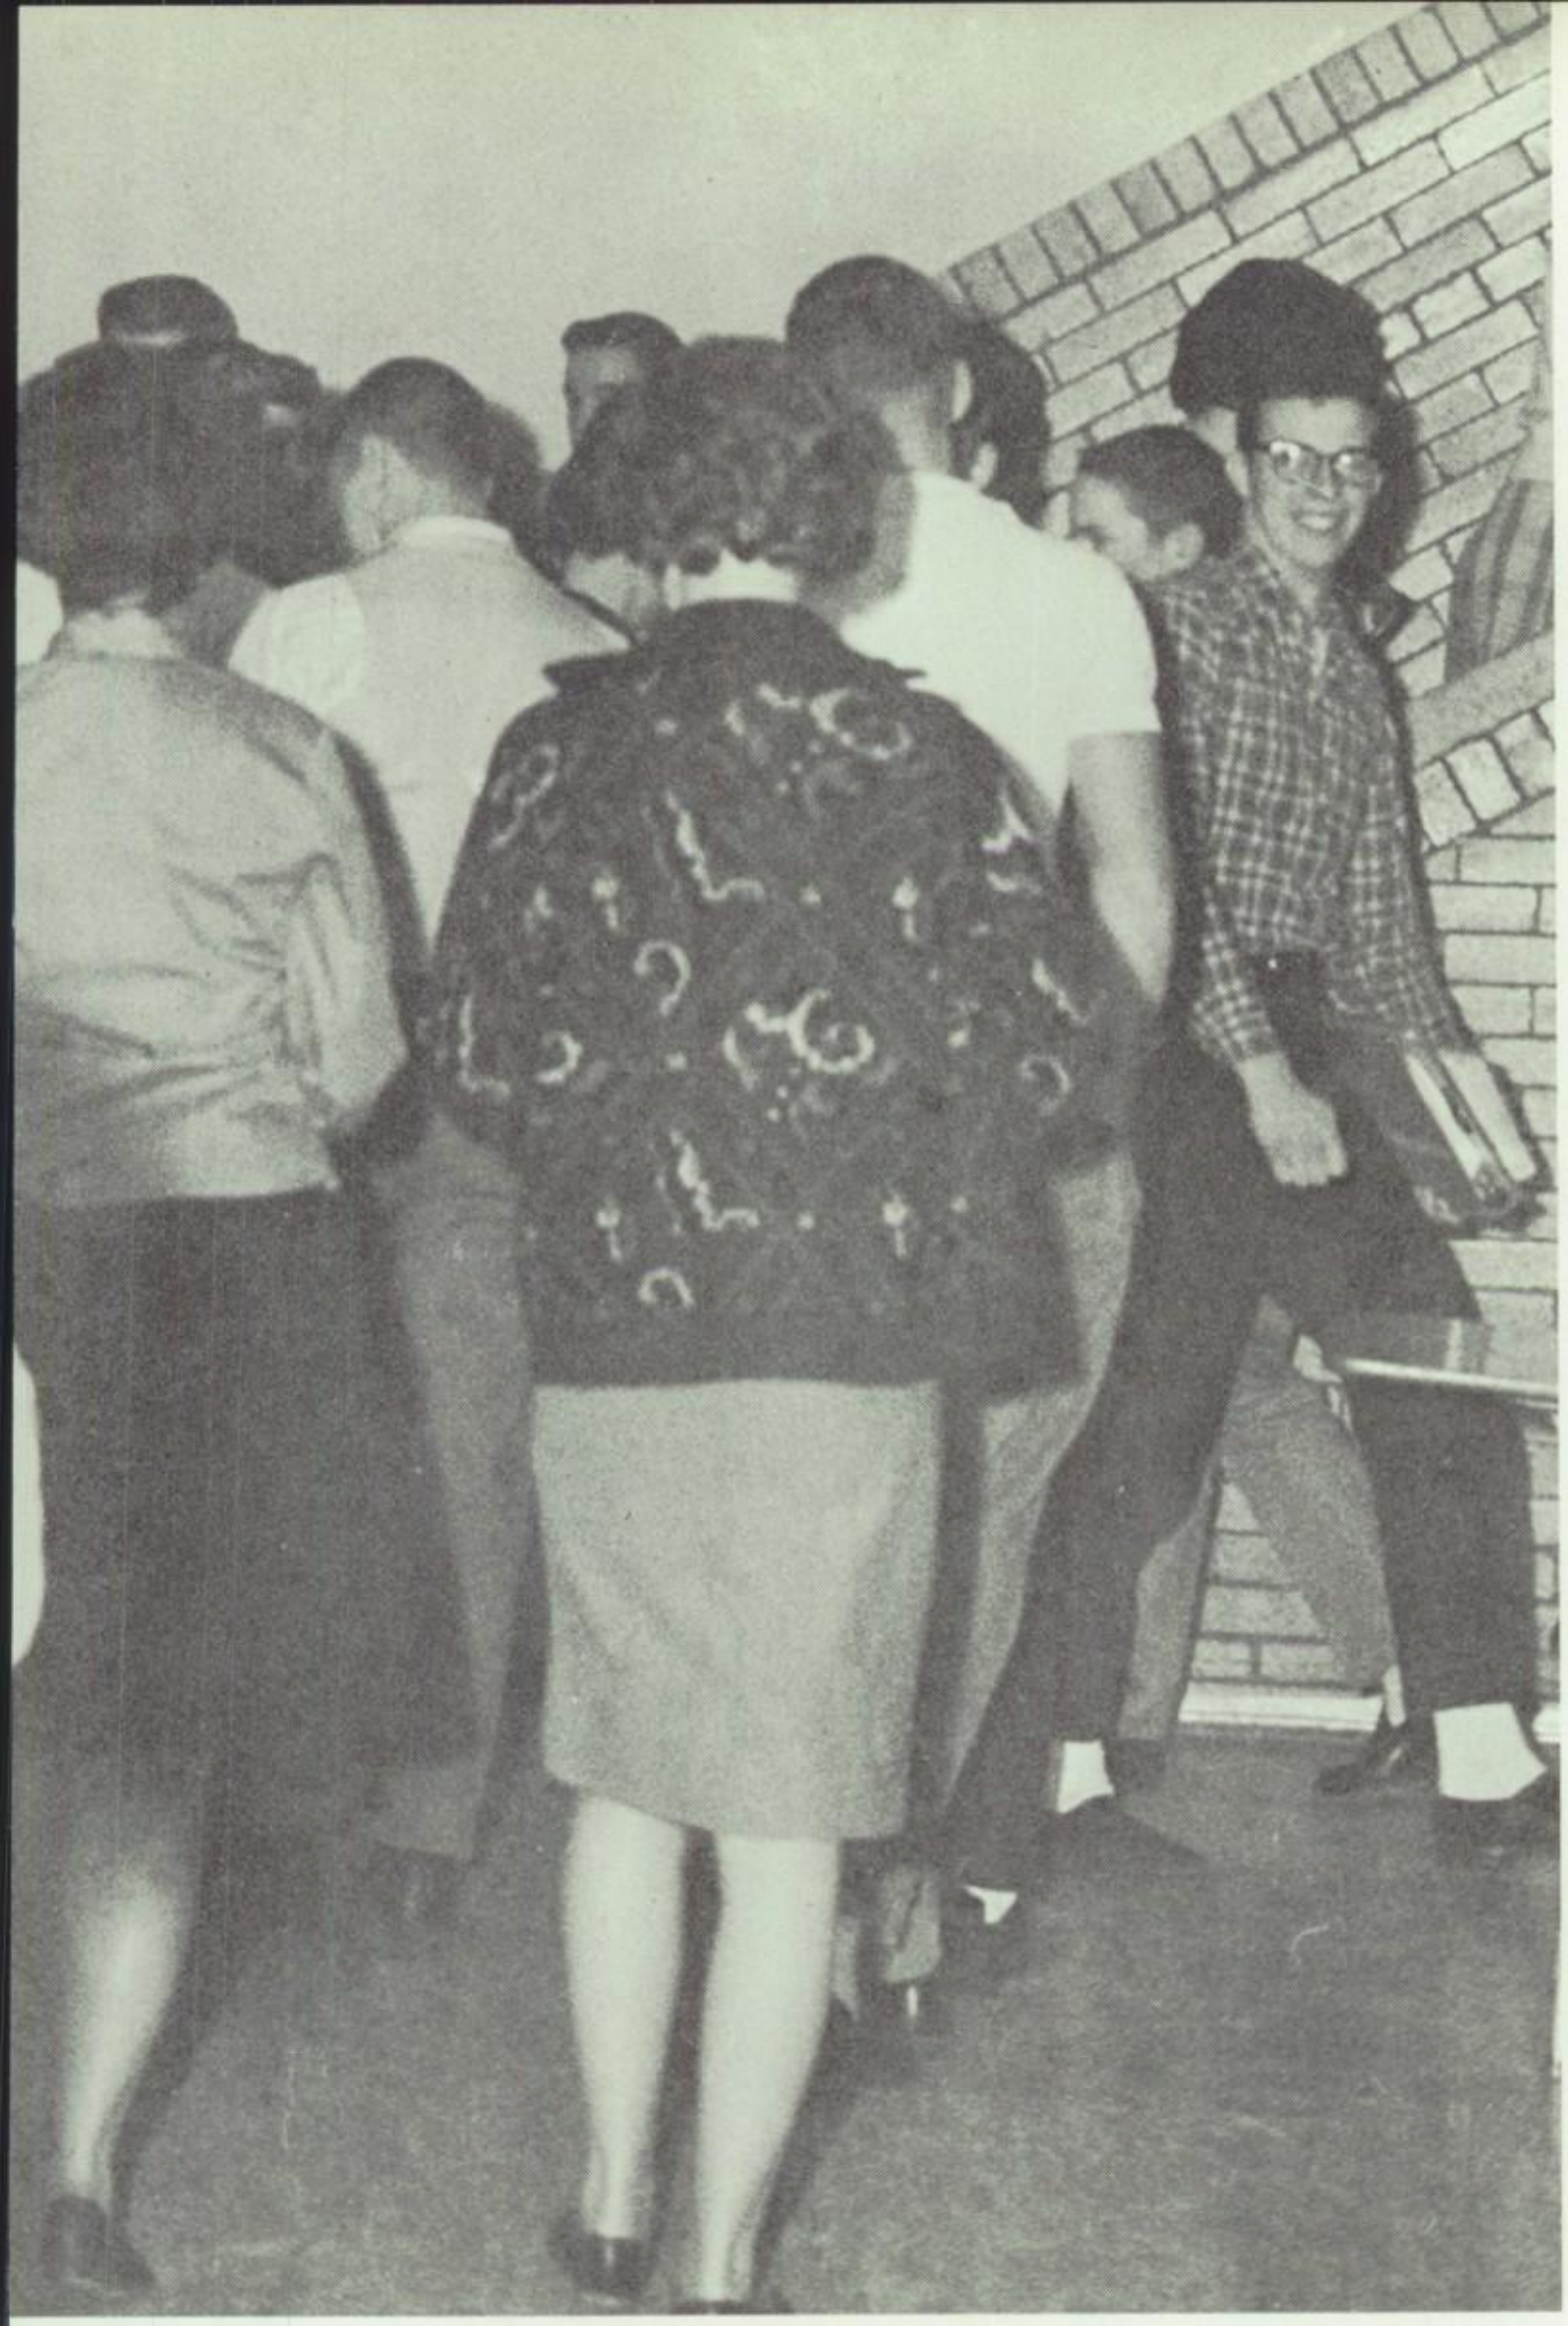
"And now a few words from Crazy."

"May I have your autograph, Sue?"

"Uh, now we'll have cabinet reports."

"Louie, come back! You're running the wrong way."

"What did you say?"



UNDERCLASSMEN

Dashing through the halls to get to class, doing extra-credit reports so we will pass, reading stacks of books, marching with the band, singing with the choir, cheering at pep meetings, watching assemblies, dissecting frogs, and waiting for the day when we will finally be Seniors. Oh, the joys of being an Underclassman ! How can we ever forget those years so full of memories?

SPORTS

We remember sitting in the freezing cold at a football game, screaming our lungs out at a basketball game, standing in the rain to watch a track meet, singing the school song slightly out of tune, the spirit and enthusiasm before a game, the excitement at the pep meetings, the joys of victory and the despair of defeat. Our "school spirit" has always been high. We have cheered our teams, we are proud of them, and, win or lose, we were there to back them.

ACTIVITIES

Our school year abounds with activities, from clubs and organizations to Homecoming and the Mid-Winter Holiday.

Each of us has belonged to one of these groups, gone to one of the dances, attended a Student Council meeting, voted for the Homecoming Queen, or enjoyed being in various performances.

Who can forget the many memories of being a part of this school, in extra-curricular activities as well as in the classroom?

Homecoming

Senior court poses after performing at the all school Homecoming pageant. Surrounding Queen Marcia are her senior court, Susan Jones, Penny Hastings, Karen Stroven, Jane Sweitzer and Mary Ann Savage.

Another year draws to a close and another Mogul goes to press. Within its covers, a yearbook tries to capture a few of the memories of the past year. This book only attempts to act as a stimulus, the rest is up to you. You have, in your mind, many more memories than we could ever put in this book.

Some day, many years from now, you will look back on your high school years and you will remember things you thought you had forgotten. Then you will say, "This I remember . . . ."

Good Luck to a real cute, sweet girl. Have fun in all that you do. Be Good Sue Drake '65
